THE MINNESOTA MOVEMENT

DETAILS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION FOR REVIVAL OF RACING IN THAT STATE.

Advocates of Plan Submit Statement of Aims and Purposes to Members of the Legislature—Text of Proposed Bill.

St. Paul, Minn., January 17.—The effort to bring about a revival of thoroughbred racing in this state under reformed conditions is taking tangible shape. Those who have taken the initiative in the matter have prepared an address to the members of the Legislature, in which the aims of the promoters of the proposed legislation and the reasons for the movement are set forth at length. Special stress is laid upon the desirability of doing something to avert such a catastrophe as the extermination of the American thoroughbred horse and the vigorous views of Major-General Leonard Wood of the United States Army in this direction are given prominence. The appeal to Minnesota to do its share in helping to perpetuate the thoroughbred is couched in the following language:

To the Legislature and People of Minnesota:

A coterie of farmers and business men who are lovers of horse racing and the encouragement and improving the breed of the racing horse, especially the thoroughbred, which is the foundation of the courage, speed, endurance and early maturity in every horse, at a gathering held recently discussed the question pro and con and came to the conclusion that if the horse in the United States was to be perpetuated both for breeding and racing purposes, something had to be done; laws should be enacted by the legislatures of the different states that would permit the holding of honest race meetings under proper state legislation and in such a manner that they could not be the slightest taint of dishonesty and unfairness attached to such meetings.

They realized that certain faults and mistakes, had in the past crept into horse racing and it has been justly criticised. They also realized that these certain faults and mistakes were caused by the bookmaker and his method, and came to the conclusion that if a law could be passed which would cut out the bookmaker and his method and put horse racing under the control and supervision of the state, that horse racing would soon regain its position and put it on the same foundation of honesty and fairness that made it the sport of kings and honest gentlemen which our forefathers loved and enjoyed.

In order to carry into effect this purpose and to restore horse racing to its honored position of the past and to provoke public discussion in a fair and open handed manner they have drawn the following bill which they think removes the evil and which they submit for the approval of the people of the State of Minnesota and the Legislators.

An Act to encourage the improving and breeding of standard and thoroughbred horses, and to provide for the appointment of a state racing commission to control and grant licenses for horse racing in the State of Minnesota.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Any association or corporation formed for the purpose of racing and breeding or improving or encouraging the breed of horses and conducting races and contests of speed between horses, shall have the right, and power, subject to the provisions of this act, to hold one or more race meetings in each year, and to hold, maintain and conduct horse races at such meetings. At such meetings the corporation or association or the owners of the horses engaged in such races, or others who are not participants in the racing, may contribute purses, prizes, premiums or stakes to be contested for, but no person or persons other than the owners of a horse or horses contesting in a race shall have any pecuniary interest in a purse, premium, prize or stakes contested for in such races or be entitled to or receive any portion thereof after such races shall have been finished.

Section 2. a. A State Racing Commission is hereby established to consist of five persons, who shall be freeholders and qualified electors of said state, to be appointed by the governor within twenty days after this law shall be in force, none of whom shall be an officer in a corporation or association or race track engaged in giving race meetings.

b. The term of office of said racing commission shall be five (5) years and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. Provided, however,, that the first board of racing commissioners shall hold office respectively for the term of one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5) years, as the governor shall designate when making said appointments, and until their respective successors are appointed and qualified.

c. Whenever any vacancy shall occur upon said racing commission, the governor shall as soon as practicable thereafter, appoint a person of like qualifications as aforesaid, to serve, during the unexpired term of the office thus left vacant and until a successor shall be appointed and qualified.

d. Each commissioner shall qualify, by taking, subscribing and filing the oath of office, prescribed by the constitution and laws of the State of Minnesota within thirty (30) days after notice of his appointment.

e. Said commission shall elect of their number a president and vice-president whose respective terms of office and duties shall be prescribed by the by-laws of said commission.

Section 3. Said commission shall appoint a secretary, who shall hold such office during the pleasure of the commission. The duty of such secretary shall be to keep a full and faithful record of the proceedings of the commission and preserve at its general office all books, maps, documents and papers entrusted to its care, and perform such other duties as the commission shall prescribe. He shall be paid a salary to be fixed by the commission at a rate not exceeding eighteen hundred dollars per annum, which shall be paid by such racing corporations or associations who shall obtain licenses from said commission, the amounts to be paid by each to be apportioned by the commission, which shall on or before the first day of January of each year, assess upon each of said corporations or associations its proportion of such salary. The commission shall biennially make a full report to the governor of its proceedings for the two-year period ending with the first day of January preceding the meeting of the legislature. All other expenses of the said racing commission shall be paid by the racing corporation or associations obtaining licenses under this act, and shall be pro-rated in the same manner. Said commission shall have the power to make rules, regulations and conditions which shall govern the actual trotting, pacing and running races held upon the track of any corporation or association who shall obtain a license under the provision of this act.

Section 4. Any association or corporation formed for the purpose of raising and breeding or improving or encouraging the breed of horses and conducting races and contests of speed, shall have the power and right subject to the provisions of this act, to

RECORD OF THE MACMANUS STABLE FOR 1912

The fleet and richly-bred two-year-old filly, Anna Patricia, was the leading money winner in the stable of James MacManus in 1912 and raced as a half sister of that good race horse Sir Wilfred should. His three-year-old Presumption ran creditably at times and won almost as much money as Anna Patricia, but hardly measured up to the high standard of some of his performances when a two-year-old. Tay Pay and Star O'Ryan were decidedly useful contributors to the stable's income, but Rocky O'Brien was of little use and has greatly fallen away from his fine form when a two-year-old. The winnings of the stable were:

W. H. FIZER'S BAND OF PLATERS

W. H. Fizer was one of the owners who fell but a little short of amassing $10,000 in stable winnings in the racing of 1912, largely because his campaign was over tracks where the purses were small. Discontent was his best winner and quite a speedy colt when at his best. Old Whidden was another which raced with results satisfactory to the Fizer treasury, nor did the sprinter, Eye White, fail to do his part. Nothing else in the stable was able to attain the $1,000 mark in earnings, but De Cesarion, Moralight, Baby Doll, Judge Walton and Wadsworth II. all helped by winning one or more purses, the aggregate result being:

A CANADIAN OWNER'S MONEY WINNERS

With but four horses racing in his colors, C. A. Crew fared quite well in the racing of 1912, chiefly through the success of his good Martimas filly, Amberite, in carrying off events for Canadian-bred horses exclusively, she taking the Breeders' Stakes and the Maple Leaf Stakes at the Toronto spring meeting and the valuable Stanley Produce Stakes at the Toronto autumn meeting. The Sanford cast-off, Ta Nun Da, proved himself still able to run a bit when pitted against his own kind and paid his way as well as was to have been expected. Luckola and Kilo won races and in all the quartet made the following return in money won:

| Horse. | Color and Sex. | A. | Pedigree. | 1st. | 2d. | 3d. | Amt. Won. |
| Amberite | ch. f. | 3 | By Martimas—Lyddite | 4 | 5 | 4 | $6,400 |

| Kilo | ch. g. | 5 | By Kilogram—Kate Spottswood | 1 | 0 | 0 | 390 |
| Totals | | | | 10 | 9 | 9 | $9,595 |

WINNINGS OF FREE LANCE AND HIS STABLEMATES

Although numbering on its roster what may have been the best three-year-old of the year, George J. Long's stable failed to quite reach the division of winners of $10,000 or more. This was mainly because Free Lance fell lame after his brilliant victory in the Latonia Derby and, being retired in consequence, was not available for the stake racing at the Lexington, Louisville and Latonia meetings of last fall. Allowing Rudolfo to pass from the stable early in the racing year was a mistake that deprived it of the considerable sum won afterwards by that fast and staying colt. However, the master of Bashford Manor does not race for revenue, but for love of the sport and probably was very well satisfied with the results achieved, his stable record for the year being:

| Horse. | Color and Sex. | A. | Pedigree. | 1st. | 2d. | 3d. | Amt. Won. |

| Free Lance | ch. c. | 3 | By Alvescot—Merry Heart | 4 | 0 | 0 | $5,955 |

NO STARS IN THE WHITNEY STRING THE PAST SEASON

Twenty-two horses started in H. P. Whitney's colors on this side of the Atlantic in 1912 and when the season ended only six of them remained in his ownership, they being Bashti, Pankhurst, Tumble, Discovery, Captain Jinks and Coronet. Except Bashti, all were raced for sale and many won handsomely for other owners after passing from his possession. In fact, these horses won in all $18,481, of which Mr. Whitney's share was as shown in the table below. Eleven of them sold were fillies of the best breeding and should prove valuable broodmares when their racing days are over. They are all needed in our breeding, as are many more of their kind and if the Whitney policy of 1912 is to be followed up for some years to come it cannot fail to be attended with extremely useful results in the future. Mr. Whitney's 1912 stable earnings were:

PURSES GO TO LONG SHOTS

THREE OUTSIDERS SCORE IN THE HEAVY GOING AT JUAREZ.

Remaining Races Accounted For By Favorites—Jockey McDonald Pilots His First Winner and Is Regarded as a Comer.

El Paso, Tex., January 17.—Long shots and favorites divided the Juarez card this afternoon. The weather was grand, it being like a May day in the east and the attendance was large. Ooma, from the stable of Col. W. E. Applegate, won the two-year-old dash. She was installed first choice when the layers posted their prices. She had started only once before and had finished beaten off. She proved gamest in a hard struggle with Stella Ward and Irish Ann. Ursula Emma and Just Red were the other favorites to reward the public. They just cantered along in front of their opposition to win easily.

Dave Montgomery, starting for the first time at this meeting, caught the judges' eye first in the fifth race, with 40 to 1 laid against his chances. He was always close up in the running and wore Tim Judge down in the last stride.

Hanly, a frequent winner on the Kentucky tracks last season, won the final race of the day at the liberal odds of 20 to 1. He just did manage to last to win from Mycenae by a nose. The latter was also a long shot, having been held at the liberal odds of 12 to 1.

Little Jockey McDonald scored his maiden victory on Velie Forty in the second race. The filly bore out on the turn in entering the stretch into the good going while her most formidable opponents were running along the rail where the track was heavy. With more experience, McDonald will probably develop one of the best apprentice riders of the year.

Prince Conrad was taken sick just before post time for the fourth race and was excused from starting by the stewards.

Jockey J. Henry, who has been troubled with his eyes recently, asked permission from the stewards to cancel his mounts for the day, as he felt that he could not do them justice. The request was granted.

Two new bookmakers drew in today. They were Frank Gossett and Will Applegate. Gossett is a recent arrival from Hot Springs. He reports that there is a confident feeling of having a meeting at that place this year.

This morning's work-outs included the following:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Turf and Field Club is to sell its clubhouse on Long Island, but the organization is to be continued.

The Bedwell horses, which make up the largest stable at Charleston, are practically all ready for racing.

Yenghee, in the stable of A. G. Blakeley at Charleston, is sick and may not race during the approaching meeting there.

Jockey E. Martin, who is in the employ of C. T. Patterson at Charleston, expects to be able to ride at 100 pounds during the Palmetto Park meeting.

Instead of sending them to England, where they met with poor demand last year, the yearlings at H. T. Oxnard's Virginia farm will be sold in America this year.

At one of the English race courses a few days ago a hurdle race was won by a Whitney cast-off called Turnover. The value of the race was $750. Turnover is by Hamburg (once sold for $70,000), out of Flip Flap, a mare for which G. W. (Whitey) Langdon paid $24,000 one day that he won $54,000 at Sheepshead Bay.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Communications without names and addresses will not be noticed nor answered. No answers will be sent by mail and none by wire unless reply prepayment is made at time of wiring query.

R. W. R., Chicago. Big Ben won at a mile, but not at a mile and a quarter.

C. A. J., Toronto, Ont. The prices inquired about were verified at the time and correct as printed. More than one book had 11 to 5 show at post time.

Andrew J., Louisville, Ky. (1) A bet on a horse that is scratched from a race and starts in another as an added starter is a draw and does not follow the horse to a race the parties did not have in view when the bet was made. (2) A play or pay bet loses on a scratch just as if the horse had run and been beaten, but a race declared off is a different thing and B.'s bet was a draw.

R. T. WILSON IS RE-ELECTED.

New York, January 17.—The Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses, elected officers yesterday as follows:

President, R. T. Wilson; vice-president, Harry Payne Whitney; secretary and treasurer, Andrew Miller; executive committee, R. T. Wilson, Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., C. H. Waring, Andrew Miller, H. P. Whitney and Charles Kohler. The latter replaces P. J. Dwyer, who disposed of his Saratoga track stock a year ago.

NOW GETTING FINISHING TOUCHES.

Improvements at Palmetto Park Meet with Approval of the Horsemen.

Charleston, S. C., January 17.—The finishing touches are being put to Palmetto Park and the plant is now practically ready for the opening day. The many improvements that have been made are receiving the warm approval of the horsemen. The judges' stand is considered the largest and most complete of any race course of this country. The structure is a two-story affair, ten by twelve feet, and the lower part is completely enclosed by sheets of plate glass, affording a full view of the quarters of the placing judges and the clerk of the scales. The new press box is decidedly different from the ordinary press stand. It is situated in front of the private boxes, below the level of the railing of the grandstand, and will afford the members of the press an unobstructed view of the racing. It is fitted with all the conveniences that the turf scribes may have use for. The judges' stand and press box were designed by J. O. Holder.

Thomas K. Lynch, compiler of the form chart and turf correspondent, arrived today and was enthusiastic over the track and the prospects for the coming meeting.

Hilarious, a good son of Voter, has run his last race, having broken down. He is to be retired to the stud of J. L. Holland at Blackwell, Okla.

Quite a number of jockeys have arrived within the last ten days, and some of the heavy boys are already reducing weight on the road. Charley Peak has arrived from Hot Springs and announces that he will be able to ride at a lighter weight than for a year. J. Wilson is here from France and is in fine fettle. Both of these boys will ride free lance. Andress will ride the horse of W. T. Woodward and Arthur Pickens will have the mounts on all horses that N. B. Davis sends to the post.

J. J. McAuley with Chilton Queen, and Al Blume with Caliph, arrived today from New York.

The horses that worked this morning included the following:

Abrasion—Mile in 1:47.
Amoret—Half mile in 52.
Bodkin—Five-eighths in 1:06.
Chilton King—Five-eighths in 1:05.
Colonel Ashmeade—Half mile in 55.
Donald Macdonald—Mile in 1:48.
Eaton—Mile in 1:48.
Effendi—Mile in 1:47.

FIGURES THAT TELL THE STORY.

New York, January 17.—W. H. Rowe, registrar for the Jockey Club and in charge of its Stud Book, has presented a report showing that in 1908 there were 22,500 thoroughbreds in the horse breeding industry in the United States and that now there are only 7,500. This, of course, includes only stallions, mares and yearlings.

HORSES BID UP DURING 1912.

More horses were bid up after winning selling races in the United States, Canada and Mexico during 1912 than in any other year since Daily Racing Form began to compile statistics of this feature of racing, in 1907. The number for the year was 293, as compared with 248 during 1911, 291 during 1910, 132 during 1909, 164 during 1908, and 268 during 1907. There were 3,049 selling races during 1912 on the recognized tracks of North America and the 293 run-ups totaled $102,130. The comparative figures in the latter respect for previous years are: 1911, $93,920; 1910, $103,960; 1909, $73,905; 1908, $85,500; 1907, $147,550. The racing organizations that derived the greatest financial benefit was the Charleston Fair and Racing Association, whose half of the excess over the entered prices amounted to $11,847. The record run-up of the year took place during the fall meeting at Laurel, when H. C. Hallenbeck was forced to go $2,005 above the entered price of his good filly Azyiade, to retain her. The horses bid up, with the amounts and other particulars, are embraced in the subjoined tabulation:

With this eminently handy book in his pocket any admirer of racing can readily answer almost any query that may come up concerning facts of racing in the past. Its equal has never been printed and, considering the topics it covers, it is an extremely low-priced book. Orders for it should be sent to Daily Racing Form Publishing Company, 441 Plymouth Court, Chicago, Ill.

OLD TROPHY BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

London, Eng., January 17.—A man attending the auction sale at the mansion of the late Sir Edward Buckley at the Plas, Dinas Mawddwy, North Wales, purchased what was apparently a bronze vase for $15.

Noticing patches of a white metal beneath the bronze, the buyer applied the acid test, whereupon the bronze came off, revealing a beautifully designed vase of gold and silver.

The present Baronet, Sir Edward Buckley, on hearing of the discovery, inspected the vase and found it to be the Chester Cup, won in 1842 by his father, with the four-year-old Alice Hawthorn.

CHANGE IN WINDSOR CLUB'S TITLE.

Detroit, Mich., January 17.—It is no longer the Windsor Fair Grounds and Driving Park Association. The name of the organization conducting racing at the oval, across the river, is now the Windsor Jockey Club (Limited). There has been confusion in the past over the name given the Windsor track, many persons confusing it with the annual fair given at the Windsor Racing Association's plant. The order for the change of name has been received from the court in charge of corporate nomenclature at Toronto,

RECOMMENDS AMENDMENT OF LAW.

New York Racing Commission Comments on Deplorable Condition in Annual Report.

Albany, N. Y., January 17.—The so-called anti-race track gambling laws should be amended so as to relieve directors and officials of racing associations personally from being liable to prosecution for the recording of bets by third persons, says the annual report of the State Racing Commission presented to the legislature yesterday.

"The state of New York," says the commission, "which should lead in encouraging the breeding of thoroughbred horses, does nothing in the direction. On the contrary, the anti-racing legislation of 1908 and 1910 has inflicted serious damage to the cause. It seems remarkable that the only place any cognizance is taken of betting should be upon the race track, and then the penalty visited upon those who had nothing to do with it.

"With the criminal law in respect to gambling as it is, and properly inforced on and off the race course," the report adds, "it may be possible for race tracks to be opened, but not if the officers and directors are to be held criminally liable for violations of the gambling law committed by other persons."

The commission points out that "the existing statutes have terminated running horse races in this state, and if the present state of affairs shall be long continued the breeding and developing of thoroughbreds will entirely cease and the thoroughbred will disappear from the United States."

The report says that since the enactment of the anti-race track gambling laws the number of thoroughbreds exported to foreign countries has been tremendous.

The report further said:

"Inasmuch as betting and wagering are not criminal, why, as a matter of common fairness, should officials of a race course be held responsible for the secret recording of a bet? The matter is one beyond their control."

The commission, composed of James W. Wadsworth, chairman; John Sanford and H. K. Knapp, recommend that "where racing is held under the license of the commission and the association complies with the law," the directors and officers shall not be personally liable for violations resulting from betting.

The bill directed against the publication of betting odds that failed to pass the legislature last year was re-introducted yesterday.

JAMES R. KEENE'S TRIUMPHS ABROAD.

An English Account of the Exploits of His Many Horses Raced in England.

Intelligence of the death of James R. Keene was received abroad with general regret and the newspapers of England gave much space to details of his remarkable career as a financier and a sportsman. Among others, London Sportsman dealt interestingly with his racing operations in England, and in the following article gave some particulars well worthy of reproduction here, England's money terms being rendered into American:

"He first became prominent in the States as an owner of race horses in 1879 through one of the best animals ever seen on the American turf. This was Spendthrift, best known here as the sire of Kingston, which in turn begot that brilliant race horse King's Courier and other notable animals. Spendthrift was by the imported horse Australian (son of West Australian and Emilia) out of Aerolite, by Lexington out of Florine, by Glencoe. As a three-year-old he won five races out of eight, including the 'Belmont' and the Lorillard Stakes and other leading events, while in the 'Withers,' his first attempt in the Keene colors, he was sacrificed to his stable companion, Dan Sparling. In 1880 Spendthrift was shipped to England, accompanied, among others, by Don Fulano and Foxhall. The latter was purchased by Mr. Keene as a yearling and named Foxhall, after his son. He was by King Alfonso—Jamaica, one of the numerous successful broodmares sired by the famous stallion Lexington. Spendthrift never won here, going amiss and being sent back to the States, and the Keene 'spots' were first sported in 1880 by a trio of juveniles in Don Fulano, Foxhall, and Bookmaker, who were trained by the late R. G. Sherrard. Among them they won five races, and in the spring of 1881 Foxhall ran second to the mighty Bend Or for the City and Suburban, the Derby winner of the previous year giving him thirty-four pounds and a beating, with a big field behind the pair. It is interesting to recall that Bend Or started at 100 to 8 and the American colt at 33 to 1. The magnitude of the performance of Bend Or in giving away such lumps of weight was shown in the summer by the victory of Foxhall in the Grand Prize of Paris, which he secured by a head from M. Lefevre's good colt Tristan and a number of others. Don Fulano made his first appearance that season in the Two Thousand Guineas, and right well the despised outsider (he started at 100 to 1 against) ran, finishing third to Peregrine and his compatriot, Mr. Lorillard's Iroquois, the latter only beating him by a head in their places. Don Fulano was a difficult horse to train, and for the Derby, in which Iroquois turned the tables on his Guineas conqueror, Mr. Keene's colt was unplaced. Harking back to Foxhall, he and the rest of the string were later transferred to the charge of William Day, under whose care he brought off the big double of the two chief handicaps of the autumn campaign at Newmarket, and in the following season he won the coveted Gold Cup at Ascot, for which Tristan was struck out on the day of the race. This left him with only the Duke of Beaufort's pair, Petronel and Faugh a Ballagh, to beat, and he had Petronel stone cold soon after coming into the straight. So long a lead, however had little Martin (the present Tilshead trainer) taken on Faugh a Ballagh, which was making running for Petronel, that it seemed impossible for him to be caught. Catch him, however, he did. Tom Cannon timing his finish to a nicety. Other winners about that time were Golden Gate, Marshal Macdonald, Blue Grass, Potosi, and Bolero, and from 1880 to 1883 Mr. Keene's horses won nearly $50,000 in stakes, apart from the valuable Grand Prize of Paris.

"From 1884 to 1896 Mr. Keene ran nothing in this country, but in 1897 he invaded our shores a second time and was represented until 1904, after which came a second interval until in 1909 he once more sent some horses over here and continued to race here until the close of last year. The second invasion was under the guidance of Jacob Pincus, who in the previous campaign had trained Iroquois. Mistake, Wallenstein, Aranza, etc., for the rival American owner, Mr. Lorillard, and in 1897 minor successes were scored by the aid of St. Cloud and Quibble. St. Cloud was a three-year-old of class, by Candlemas out of Belle of Maywood, and after winning a 'welter' in the First July Week he ran third for the St. Leger to Galtee More and Chelandry in a slowly-run race. Very slow the pace was, for the time was 3:31⅕, which compares ill with Swynford's 3:04. The came the memorable Cambridgeshire, for which four horses finished with heads between them, and although Sloan claimed to have won on St. Cloud by 'the length of a walking stick,' the judge's verdict placed him only second, a head behind Comfrey, 100 pounds, which carried Kempton Cannon and was giving St. Cloud a couple of pounds. To show how greatly superior the Leger winner really was to St. Cloud, it may be added that Galtee More, which ran in the Cambridgeshire, had 132 pounds on his back, or thirty-four pounds more than the colt, which in the St. Leger, had run him to less than a length. Morever, Galtee More was with the leaders till the final rise out of the dip settled him under his welter burden. St. Cloud won a good race in 1898, and in 1900 the string, now in the care of Sam Darling at Beckhampton, was strongly reinforced, with Disguise, Virginia Earle and Running Stream the star performers.

"Disguise made his debut in the Rothschild Welter at Kempton on the Easter Monday of 1900, and won in such fine style from Forcett, Hulcot, etc., that long odds were laid on him for the May Plate at Chester, in which he readily accounted for Lady Min, but though he was backed for the Derby, starting third favorite at 8 to 1, he was beaten into third place by Diamond Jubilee and Simon Dale. Disguise had severely cannoned the unlucky Forfarshire at Tattenham Corner, and the mishap may have done himself no good, for in the autumn he won the Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket, for which Forfarshire was third (beaten by two lengths) and Diamond Jubilee unplaced. Forfarshire, however, was penalized and was giving the winner six pounds, and Diamond Jubilee was trying to concede him no less than twelve pounds. Running Stream will be remembered as the two-year-old by Domino out of Dancing Water, which defeated the champion sprinter Eager by a head for the July Cup, the loser, then a six-year-old, trying to give away the huge amount of fifty-eight pounds. Winners in 1901 and 1902 were Kearsarge, Chaconnac, Virginia Earle and Running Stream, and in 1903 the chief winners were Lanchashire, Surbiton and Sweeper, the total for that season being well over $22,500. In 1909 Wedding Bells, Esperanto, Wamba, Selectman, Ballot and Coronel won races of close upon $20,000; and in 1910 his horses were transferred from Beckhampton to J. Butters at Newmarket, and, assisted by a fresh draft from the States, which included such speedy animals as Runnymede and Outram, a winning total of $28,075 was scored in 1911. Last year his only winner was Castleton, which earned winning brackets on four occasions and was sold last month for 2,800 guineas. Runnymede, Outram and others had previously been disposed of.

"Mr. Keene's son, Foxhall P. Keene, was associated with his father in partnership in some of the stable's best horses, and Mr. Keene, Sr., was the breeder of Cap and Bells, which won the Oaks of 1901, at her first and only appearance on a race course in this country, beating Sabrinetta, Minnie Dee (the property of R. Croker) and a whole fleet of others. Cap and Bells, however, belonged to Foxhall Keene, as also did the gelding Sinopi, by Marcion out of Simonetta, when as a five-year-old, he won four races in succession, inclusive of the Ascot Stakes, Salisbury Cup and the Royal Borough Handicap at Windsor."

DR. J. S. TYREE'S RACING STRING.

Washington, D. C., January 17.—For the first time a citizen of the District of Columbia boasts of the ownership of candidates for the Epsom Derby and the Epsom Oaks. Dr. J. S. Tyree is the sportsman in question, and he thinks so well of his band he is already consulting steamship time tables and freight schedules with a view of getting W. L. Oliver over there with his youngsters next fall. Mr. Oliver is to train the youngsters next summer and handle them on the other side in case they show enough in this country to warrant shipping them abroad.

Dr. Tyree's Oaks candidate is a daughter of Star Shoot and Semper d'Or, she by Logic. The filly, now a two-year-old, may start in the Oaks of 1914, for which she was nominated by John E. Madden, the person from whom Dr. Tyree purchased her. Oliver is training the filly at the old Benning track, which this winter harbors a colony of thoroughbreds that reminds one of the days when the Washington Jockey Club's course was the favorite early training ground for the great eastern stables. She is well set up, big bodied and short-legged, with reach and scope, and first-rate feet and ankles. When she flattens down she can run a quarter in :23 or thereabouts. She is of the family of Semper Ego and Semper Cara, good race horses both.

The Derby candidate of the Tyree stable is a colt by Hastings—Josie L. This fellow is now a good-looking yearling. Three times last fall he caught the eye of the judges of weanlings at Kentucky horse shows and won blue ribbons.

Dr. Tyree will take the field at Baltimore next spring with a stable of eighteen or twenty horses. He does not just now figure on sending anything to Norfolk in April, and if he is represented there it will be by a precocious two-year-old or so. The mature end of his stable is strong, but he banks principally on his two-year-olds, several of which showed as well last fall as any youngsters tried over the Benning course.

Oliver thinks highly of a close-coupled, blocky chestnut by Plaudit—Gunrod. This youngster galloped a quarter in :23⅕ at Baltimore last fall and is developing handsomely. There are colts by McGee out of Radiance and Flycatcher and by Royal Flush III.—Pirate Polly. The other youngsters are fillies by McGee out of Gold Rose, White Plume and Interview. The McGees are in demand now that Horron, Irish Gentleman, Coy and others have shown that the White Knight stallion, imported from Great Britain by Edward Corrigan, can get good winners.

Trainer Oliver believes Robert Bradley the best of the Tyree two-year-olds of 1912, will make a useful three-year-old, and the McGee colt is to be the Tyree candidate in the Preakness Stakes at Baltimore. The other three-year-olds in Oliver's charge are Skeets, Corncracker, Kewassa and Abbottsford, the last-named being the only Hippodrome three-year-old on this side of the Atlantic.

The star of the older division of the stable is that hardy veteran, Superstition. Superstition was put out of business at Pimlico last fall on the eve of the running of the Bowie Stakes, in which he had twice forced the winner to lower the American record for two miles to win, by an attack of acute indigestion. He is as chipper as a two-year-old now. His legs are in fine condition and trainer Oliver expects that he will race successfully again next season.

In Yorkshire Boy, a strapping son of Yorkshire Lad, and Astrologer, a big Star Shoot colt, Dr. Tyree owns as good looking a pair of four-year-olds as a man might wish to see. Both went into winter quarters in the best of condition. Oliver predicts that it will take a good horse to beat the son of Star Shoot in races to come, and his high opinion of the colt is shared by John Madden, who has Star Shoot at the head of his Hamburg Place stud in Kentucky.

Mr. Madden was at Benning last week and he pronounced Astrologer the handsomest individual by Star Shoot to be found on an American track. This was something of a compliment, for Mr. Madden is the man who developed Uncle, a son of Star Shoot and The Niece, and sold him to Sam Hildreth at Saratoga in 1907 for $30,000. Mr. Madden has advised Dr. Tyree to keep Astrologer for stud service. Star Shoot is now the leading sire of America and his blood is sure to exert a big influence on the American racer of the future.

Dr. Tyree has for next season and seasons to come a promising lightweight in D. Hoffman, who is being developed by Oliver.

HALF-MILE PROJECT ABANDONED.

Ottawa, Ont., January 17.—An important meeting of the Connaught Park Jockey Club was held at the clubhouse, Alymer Road, yesterday. Allie Loudon came from Hamilton and Manager Albert Rohrbach of Buffalo was in attendance, as well as other officers of the club from other cities. The directors visited the new park for the purpose of making an inspection of the plant. Interesting announcements will likely be made in a few days. The weather has been bitterly cold, but work is still proceeding at Connaught Park. The stables are completed, and the clubhouse and grandstand ready for the opening. The only difficulty experienced was that in connection with the grading, but as soon as the snow is off the ground several hundred men will be put to work levelling off the ground within the one-mile circuit. There is now stabling at Connaught Park for 500 horses. All the work possible will be continued throughout the winter. The book of conditions will be issued within a short time. The inaugural meeting is to be held from June 14 to 21, and it is now certain that no postponement will be necessary. With a reasonably early spring the plant will be entirely completed by June 1. The program for the inaugural meeting will be an elaborate one.

Montreal and Toronto men were here a fortnight ago for the purpose of arranging for the operation of a smaller race meeting over a new half-mile track, which they proposed to erect on the Hull side, but the plan, according to officers of the Hull Driving Club, who were supposed to be co-operating, has been dropped. The Connaught Park directors, who constitute the leading citizens of the capital, were decidedly opposed to the plan, as they considered that the introduction of the minor racing would affect the big meeting in June, which will be opened by His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught.

PETER PAN ENTERS STUD IN FRANCE.

New York, January 17.—Phil T. Chinn returned to America yesterday from France on the Minnetonka, which was four days late on account of a rough trip. He says that the late James R. Keene's stallion, Peter Pan, is standing in France under the management of Frank J. Gould's agent, Mr. Calhoun. His service fee is $800 and Messrs. Gould, W. K. Vanderbilt, Eugene Leigh and others have already booked mares for him. Mr. Chinn says that H. B. Duryea has a first-class three-year-old out of Running Water that is a likely candidate for important European events. He thinks that Messrs. Vanderbilt and Gould will both win big money this year. Novelty is regarded as the best jumper in France.

Mr. Chinn reports that a new rule in France requires all mares in foal coming there from other countries to be in France before January 1 of the year in which they are to foal.
